InternetGuru4u.com Announces Free Press Release Promotion

Immediate Release

Nov 24, 2009-Sunrise, FL. Social Media and Search Engine Optimization website InternetGuru4u.com has announced a year end promotion for new customers. Between now and the end of the year each new customer will receive a Free Press Release with the purchase of the Social Networking and Business Profile Package.

With 17% of shoppers saying they will use Social Media and over 60% searching for some type of online coupon or discount. "Business owners are just beginning to see Social Networking in all types of advertising. But it's always going to be the aggressive business owners who seize the opportunity early and ride the wave all the way through" said Kenneth Kessel CEO and Founder.

With the Press Release distribution business owners can have the most current information about their company online almost instantly. From holiday to year end promotions the numbers show consumers are searching online.

"On average it could be as soon as a couple of hours before your release hit the top search engines. By then combining other Social Media sites this is what attracts new customers but also keeps your current customers in constant contact with your business. It may sound simple even though it's not but that's how Social Media can work for your business" Mr. Kessel went on to say.
